BAVARIAN PRINCE HEADS LIST OF GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS DEMANDED BY THE ALLIES

Mackensen, Kluck, Buelow and Capelle Among the 800 Who Are to Be Tried.

PROTESTS IN BERLIN.

Cabinet Reported Ready to Resign Rather Than Surrender the Accused.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—The list of German war criminals, whose surrender for trial by Allied tribunals is demanded, will not be revised, it was stated officially today.

The list, containing more than 800 names, will be handed to Germany Feb. 10, it was said.

The list does not include the former Crown Prince, it was learned. Demand for his surrender, like that of the former Kaiser, will be separate.

Prominent Germans on the list, it was learned, include Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, the Duke of Württemberg, Generals von Kluck, von Buelow, von Mackensen, von der Lancken, von Sanders, Stenger, von Ostrowsky, von Temp, von Cassel and von Manteuffel, Admiral von Capelle, the brothers Niemeyer, Major von Goertz, von Buelow, Volentin and Forstner and Lieutenants Judiger and Wernher.

The Council of Ambassadors Monday will decide upon the manner of remitting the note to Germany.

BASLE, Jan. 31.—Because of the alleged impossibility of insuring the execution of its orders for the surrender of Germans accused of violation of the laws of war by the Allies, the German Government will resign if the Entente powers insist upon their delivery, according to the Nachrichten of this city, which says it has received its information from a reliable source.

Recent Berlin dispatches reported the German Government had dispatched a note to the Allies in Paris asking moderation in enforcement of the clause in the Versailles treaty demanding surrender of German war guilty. The German Government feared, it was said, that surrender of the accused might precipitate internal troubles in the republic.

The local bureau received the following message from Washington: "Northeast storm warning. Atlantic Coast, Philadelphia to Moriches, N. Y., strong northeast wind this afternoon, to-night and Sunday."

WATERBURY, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Northern New York is in the grip of the coldest weather of the winter, the official temperature in this city registering 39 degrees below zero at 4 o'clock this morning, a drop of thirty-nine degrees during the last twenty-four hours.

SCORE IN SLEEPER PLUNGE OFF BRIDGE INTO ICY LAKE; NEW YORKERS ARE VICTIMS

Passengers, Clad in Nightclothes, Immersed as Montreal Express Is Wrecked.

MERCURY AT 38 BELOW.

Beyond Suffering From Frostbite and Intense Cold Injuries Are Slight.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Jan. 31.—Passengers on the Montreal express of the Rutland Railroad, bound from New York and Boston, were thrown from their berths into icy waters early to-day, when three sleeping cars were derailed at the Grand Isle North Hero bridge at Hubbard's Bay.

One of the sleepers went through the bridge into Lake Champlain. The escape of its occupants was remarkable, but their condition when they were taken from the water, or clambered to safety was such that more than a score required treatment.

The mercury was at 35 degrees below zero. The passengers had only their sleeping clothing. When Car No. 92 went through the bridge they were thrown from their berths into the car corridor and fell to the freezing waters at the lower end. Ten or twelve persons were piled there in a heap for a time, while others were caught in their berths.

Several of the men in the car, with the porter, set to work to rescue the others and, clearing the way for some to clamber out, and passing the women up to the bridge above, managed to get all to safety.

One elderly woman was taken out in scanty dress, almost unconscious from the cold. A man sustained severe cuts when he broke a window to extricate his daughter from her berth. Other passengers suffered bruises, eleven were frost bitten and all told more than a score required treatment.

The two sleeping cars in the rear of car 92 were derailed, but held to the bridge.

It is believed that the extreme cold caused the iron to split.

Boys Thrown Against Automobile in Crossing Accident.

PEPPERELL, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Two fourteen-year-old boys lost their lives as a result of a boisterous sled race last night. The two boys, Clarence Lindeman and Gerald Lenahan, were coasting with two companions, Fred Simmons and Roger Williams.

Crossing Maple Street at 22th Street the hoisted sleds, struck a water hydrant and Lindeman and Lenahan were thrown against a standing automobile. They were taken to the hospital, where Lindeman died last night and Lenahan this morning, both from fractured skulls.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The United States Senate is not open to charges of bad faith by European states, Viscount Grey of Fallodon declared today, in a letter to the Times.

Giving his personal opinions as a private citizen, Grey defended the action of the United States toward the League of Nations.

Grey defended the American reservations on the ground of containing alliances. The reservations, he said, look worse on paper than they really are.

ROBBER TRAPPED ON WEST END AV. BY PLUCKY WOMAN

Less Burglaries If More of Your Sex Were As Nerve, Says Magistrate

CAUGHT PICKING DOOR

Accused Man Captured by Policeman After Chase When Mrs. Wahl Gave Alarm.

When Mrs. Iona Wahl closed the door of her apartment at No. 849 West End Avenue at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon she did it very carefully so as to make no noise.

This was because on opening the door she had seen a man bending over the lock of a door across the corridor. He was working with what afterward proved to be a jimmy, and he had not heard her. Mrs. Wahl watched him a few seconds, then summoned her courage and walked straight to him.

"What are you doing here?" she demanded.

"I was—I wanted—to see some one," he stammered. And then he ran for the front door. Mrs. Wahl screamed for help and followed him.

Her cries were heard by Patrolman E. F. Flynn, who was a block away. He saw the man running down the avenue and he followed, drawing his pistol. He fired two shots, which brought Detectives Fitzgerald and Finn into the chase. The fugitive was caught.

In the West Side Court he was arraigned to-day and held in $350 bail for the Grand Jury. He said he was Peter Laitman, 21 years old, No. 232 East 119th Street.

"I didn't want to appear against him," said Mrs. Wahl to Magistrate Levine. "But what could I do? Conditions have been terrible in that apartment building lately. I don't know how many burglaries have been committed. Something had to be done."

"If there were more women as nerve as you are," said the Magistrate, "there would be fewer burglaries."

Detectives testified that they had recovered a jimmy thrown away by the prisoner and that the instrument fitted the jimmy marks on several apartment doors in the same building with Mrs. Wahl's apartment.

J.

Miss Levine was one of a party of six returning to Brooklyn from a basketball game at the Stuyvesant School, at First Avenue and 12th Street. The other occupants of the car received minor bruises. Miss Levine was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

NATION-WIDE FIGHT PLANNED FOR ELECTION OF CONGRESS FAVORING 3.75 BEVERAGES

One of Chief Political Parties Likely to Make Question an Issue in Platform—Lawmakers Can Declare What Is Non-Intoxicating.

By David Laurence. (Special Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31 (Copyright, 1920).—All those people who would like to have the privilege of buying, making, distributing or drinking light wines and beer need only make a noise so that they may be counted, and if numerically they would appear to exceed those who want America kept as dry as the Sahara, they are likely to prevail upon one of the big political parties to put a plank in its next election platform to that effect.

Naturally, the question of how to keep the saloon extinct and the perils of whiskey from those who would drink it to excess and at the same time provide for the American people the light wines and beers they want for social beverages, has puzzled the political leaders in Washington who are inclined not exactly to be "wet" but a trifle damp, at least damp enough to want to acquire votes next fall.

STARS DECLARE WE WON'T HAVE TO GIVE UP BEER AND WINE

"Prof." Neyer, Reading Gov. Edwards' Horoscope, Predicts Fortunate Administration.

THE stars say that the American people will not have to go without their beer and wine, according to Governor Edwards by "Professor" Gustave Meyer, Hoboken astrologer. The "Professor" finds that inasmuch as Taurus was in the ascension and Venus was ported in the eighth mansion of the heavens when the Governor was inaugurated his administration "will be quite a fortunate one, to say the least."

However, Governor Edwards will experience much "peculiar and unexpected trouble" through bad friends and advisors. Bitter to himself and family, with the danger of a loss of one of his children is indicated by the "fiery and evil planet Mars."

SUES LANDLORD; TOO MUCH HEAT!

Brook Tenant Says He Had to Hold Finger Over Valve Till He Was Badly Burned.

Hyman Pleskin of No. 855 East 172d Street to-day filed a suit for $50,000 damages in the Bronx Supreme Court against George and Louise Singer of No. 224 West 208th Street, as a result of the Singers, his landlords, supplying too much heat in his apartment.

His complaint states that on Nov. 30, 1918, a valve of the radiator blew off, on account of too much steam in the pipes, and that to save himself, and rather from suffocation, he put his right index finger over the valve and held it there till it was so badly burned that blood poison subsequently developed and the digit was amputated.

The complaint doesn't state what happened to the family after he took his finger off the valve, or whether they opened the windows, used a fan or a towel to stop the smoke or turned off the steam.

Youngstown Steel Plant Boosts Wages.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 31.—The Youngstown sheet and tube company, largest independent steel company in Ohio, declared, emphasizing reality, today that it will grant a 2.5 per cent increase of 10 per cent in its employees' wages after Feb. 1, 1921, when it will be paid $1.25 per hour.

On the evils of the saloons and the misuse of whiskey there would seem to be unanimity of opinion, but on light wines and beer one notices here a tendency to regard with considerable speculation the exact political effect of such a plank in any platform. The fact that Gov. Edwards
